- Please note that there are no discounts for return tickets in Italy. Simply add together the two one way journeys for the return price
- Trains to Milan usually depart from Platform 1 at Stresa station but always double check the departures (partenze) screen
- There are large departure boards near the platforms at Milan Central station to check the platform number and each platform has a screen stating the final destination of the train and all the stops it will make
- We advise that you avoid Sundays and Mondays as shops and/or museums will be closed
- Children under 4 years travel free but have no right to a seat (i.e they must travel on an adult's lap) and children 4-12 years receive approximately 50% discount

* Please note that IR train tickets need to be validated (stamped) in the yellow machines at the train station. EC train tickets require compulsory seat reservation but do not need validating
